The story of this school is but a biography of its students.
Youth today is more than a new generation.
It is the beginning of a new world.
A spectrum of activity
Speaking out
Initiating Participating Thinking Pursuing Discovering Experimenting Feeling
Emoting Desiring Hoping
Dreaming Becoming Being Alive.
The youth of today
is more than the future of tomorrow.
It is
The caretaker of now.
For now is immediate exciting existential.
And living. is everything
To the Now Generation.

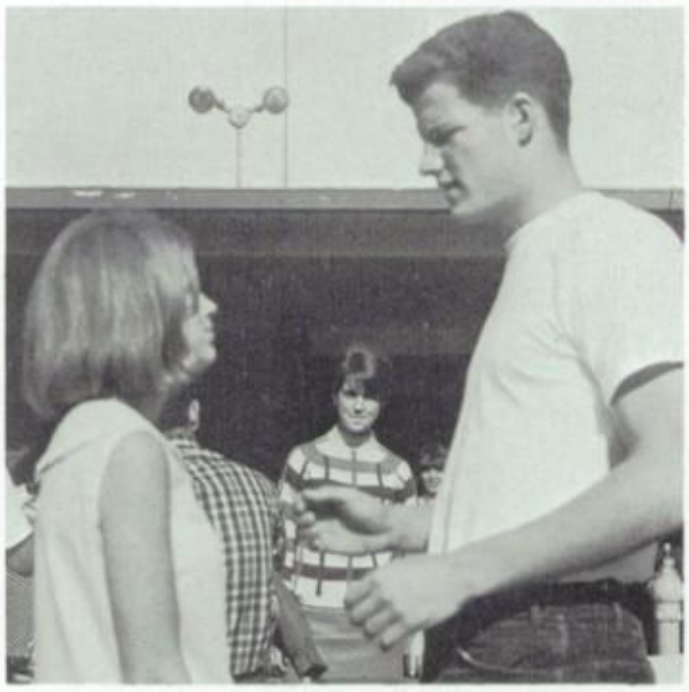
"Take that pass!"

The thrill of an approaching victory.

Before the race.

A quiet conversation during the dance.

A moment of glory.



Apart from the crowd.

A memory of moments free from work.

Dedication

Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg

Thirty-three years of service . . .

Fortunate is the school which has faculty members who give as much of themselves to the school and its students as Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg. This year, after 33 years of service, the Thornburgs are retiring.

Mr. Thornburg has devoted himself to directing bands and orchestras, leading choirs, planning dramatic musical productions, and even driving a school bus when the need arose. Mrs. Thornburg has entertained, as well as taught, at W.H.S. Few of her students will forget her humorous presentations of Spanish dialogues or her pertinent "Pobrecitas" and "Que lastimas!"

Because of their warmth and understanding toward students and their continuous loyalty to this school, we, the class of '68, wish to dedicate the Washingtonian to Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg.

To The Seniors

In 1980 you will be thirty years old, and you will have reached the point where more than half of the population will no longer listen to you. In the next twelve years can you possibly communicate to the coming generations all that is worthwhile? After twelve years, will you gain nothing in experience that will be worth communicating to others? If the answer is "yes," then there really would not be much point in living beyond the age of thirty.

"Don't listen to anyone over thirty!" may be a catchy phrase. The idea may really appeal to you today, but if you really take the words seriously, I suspect this world of ours is going to be in trouble shortly.

The "don't listen" idea is relatively new. It can be said that it is a mark of your generation. I suggest that you think seriously for a moment whether or not it makes sense to tune out those over thirty. For you there can be serious consequences to the perpetuation of this myth which you have started. Have you thought of what these consequences might be? Will you really be willing to accept these consequences in twelve years?

Think it over!

The Inter-Club Council Coordinates

the activities of Washington's clubs. Under the leadership of President Debbie Shultz, this year's Interclub Council has flared into an important organization.

D. Shultz. KNEELING: S. Sibert, A. Rodriguez, S. Clark, S. Flores, K. Chmieleski, D. Anderson, K. Brady, N. Merrifield, K. Sylvester, G. Bates. STANDING: S. Stark, G. Silva, S. Morrow, S. Isakson, J. Skarles, T. Becker, K. Dawson.

Students Judge the Students

Under the jurisdiction of Chief Justice, Kim Sylvester, the Student Court was very effective in handling minor violations of the dress code and other school rules. Helping her were the Associate Justices: Arleen Talley, Senior; Val Pickford, Sophomore; Randy Scott, Senior; Dean Ricker, Junior; Bob VanLier, Senior.

The Student Council

is the core of our student government. Consisting of elected student body officers, class representatives elected from Representative Assembly, and a new addition this year, Rally Commissioner, the council meets every Wednesday. Not only does it discuss and decide important school issues to be brought before Representative Assembly and apportion ASB funds for all activities, but it also serves as a communicative body between the students and the administration, making recommendations concerning school policy.

This year the Student Council was primarily concerned with the new district-wide Dress Code, sponsoring a free dance for ASB card holders, the Lee-Man-Soo A-Go-Go, and the Nomination Convention which was held in April.

Each year some lucky Washington students share their homes and American lives with a foreign exchange student, and selected Washingtonians spend a year or a summer with a family abroad.

Since 1957, Washington has sent ten Americans to eight foreign countries and has hosted twelve exchange students from ten different nations. We learn to know these students as individuals and friends, not as aliens, and we hope they see us in the same light. At times the year is not easy for the student or the host family, but wonderful experiences are never easy nor are they ever forgotten. Exchange students leave having adopted a new nation, a new family, and a better understanding of the United States.

A.F.S. Club

This year we had six culturally enriching exchange students at Washington. Malu was sponsored by the AFS Club while the others participated in Youth for Understanding, a program similar to AFS.

The AFS has had a memorable year with the guidance of Mr. Hofmann and Mr. Van Vactor, the assistance of the Adult Chapter, and the able leadership of President Nancy Merrifield. Highlighted by the AFS Funds Drive, AFS Week, the Last Annual Pie-Eating Contest, and the AFS Dance, this year has proved highly successful.

Malu

Intelligent and charming, Joachim "Joe" Raase, exchange student from Germany under the Youth for Understanding program, spent the year with Junior Melody Montgomery and her family. Though Joe was a very easy-going and compatible fellow, he frequently harassed teachers by knowing more about the subject material than they did.

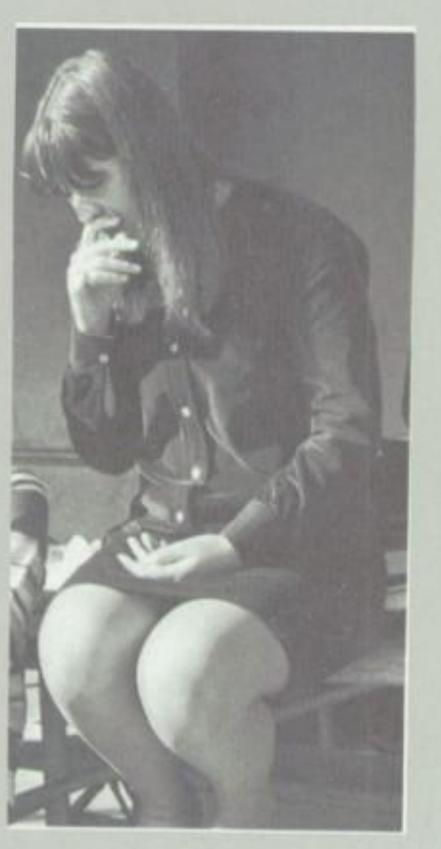
Carmen and Maria

Carmen Lemus and Maria Teresa Gebaurer, both from Chile, attended Washington for the second semester under the Youth for Understanding program also. Maria stayed with the Grass family, while Carmen lived with Mr. and Mrs. Souza. The girls find America very beautiful and enjoy attending a co-educational school, since they will return and graduate from an all girl academy in their native land.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Janny

Janny seemed to have very little difficulty in adjusting to the American way of life. Staying in the home of sophomore Peggy Smith and family, Christiane Lennke, as she is formally known, attended Washington under the Youth for Understanding, which is the organization responsible for bringing her over from Germany.



Tired of being bombarded by insensate questions, Malu would like to set those inquisitive American people straight about her native land: "No, we don't have snakes crawling around on the streets of Brazil. Yes, we do have TV, and no, I don't speak Spanish."

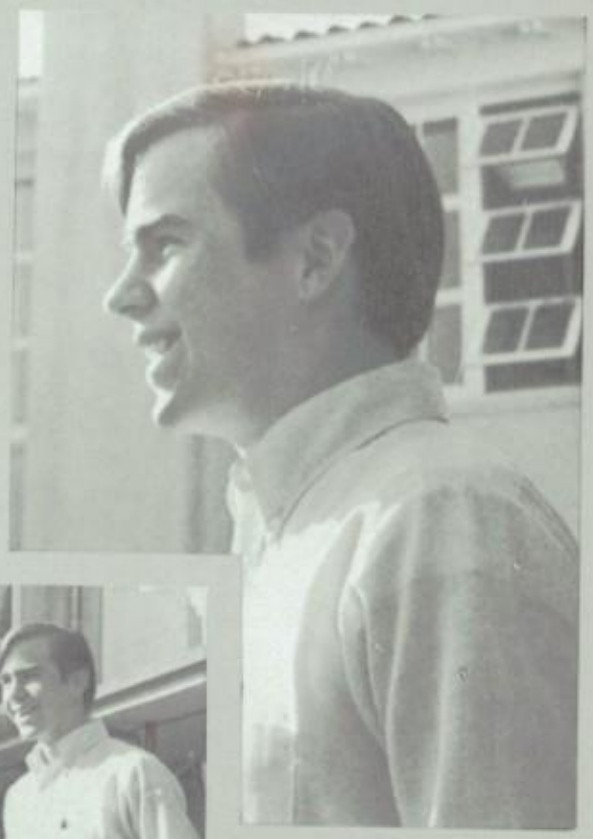
Maria Luisa de Prado from Puerto Alegre, Brazil, was sponsored by the American Field Service organization and spent this year in Fremont with junior Nancy Lewis. Affectionately nicknamed Malu, she prefers a more relaxed school life, but found Washington quite enjoyable.

"Joe"

What a way to spend a summer! Our man on the scene, Gregg Melvin, was sent to Tehran, Iran, through the AFS Club this past summer and for two months learned about and experienced the life of the Persian people. Arriving shortly after the Arab-Israeli crisis, Gregg expected much political friction but found that the mood arising from the conflict was similar to that of the United States.

Since modern transportation is not limited to the use of camels, Gregg spent most of his summer abroad sightseeing and traveling widely throughout the country with his adopted family.

The highlight of the trip, according to Gregg, was the ten day sea voyage over to Iran, which the Washington adventurer described as "a blast!"



Gregg

Club Francois

Though '67-'68 was a period of French unpopularity, the "Club Francois" managed to have a high attendance. Officers: Joe Raase, Carol Sabol, Donna Anderson. Members: C. Vargas, C. Putman, C. Kosanke, A. Deadder, B. Sabol, G. Tom, M. Anderson, G. Foster, J. Grant, L. Demetrick, M. Reehl, D. Decker, R. Worden, S. Collet, T. Browne, S. Stark, T. Ball, S. Browne, T. Stutzman, M. Havens, V. Koger, G. O'Donnell, G. McOmber.

Los Estudiantes de Espanol

Preserving early Mexican rites seems to be a major goal of the Spanish Club. Exactly what type of traditions was still being pondered by the student populace at the time of this photo.

L. Long, E. Wetter, K. Chmieleski, T. Gleason, C. Casteel, P. Williams, S. Marundee, S. Lair, B. Coffee, J. Robertson, S. Clark, J. Gleason, B. Carroll, S. Hansen, M. McQueen.

Deutscher Verein

This organization had a well-rounded student membership reflecting most of the school's personalities. With kids like this the club's only objective could be "FUN."

D. Flemming, K. Helpie, J. Raase, B. McGregor, G. Bates, R. Inerbickler, B. Hyde, J. Jameson, J. Kruschke, S. Saterlee, T. Gleason, B. Goetz, C. Casteel, N. Nielsen, D. Fisher, R. Fickensher, K. Johnson, I. Lorentben, P. Trost, G. McOmber, D. Ely.

Model United Nations

The main event of the Model U.N. Club was a three day trip to Berkely where the members were delegated to represent a given country's position in world affairs. This excursion was made possible by the successful Sadie Hawkin's Dance sponsored by the club.

Advisors: Robert Burkhart, Naomi Yabumoto.

M. Vannoy, N. Nethery, J. Gonsalves, P. Anderson, P. Dunlap, J. Rehfeld, M. Dickson, J. Raase, R. Erickson, J. O'Rourk.

Cuernavaca, Mexico

. . . was their destination. This past summer seven Washington High students spent six weeks in the beautiful town of Cuernavaca, located south of Mexico City. Organized by Mr. Arenas, Washington High Spanish teacher, the group including Karin Chmieleski, Barbara Coffey, Shirley Hansen, Lynnel Long, JoAnn Robertson, Eileen Wetter and Chrys Stephenson left on June 20 for their four day journey to Mexico. They each stayed with a selected family and attended the Institute for Mexican Studies where they studied Spanish and the history of Mexico.

Music, foreign languages, and arts and crafts were also offered. Field trips were offered by the school to various cities throughout Mexico. Besides learning about the life in Mexico, the girls became very close to their families. On August 11 they boarded the train in Mexico City for Fremont. They consider this the greatest experience of their lives and encourage everyone to go.

Mr. Arenas

A wait in Mexicali.

The Institute for Mexican Studies.

There was free time after school.

Everyone's hangout, the Viena Cafe.

The center of Cuernavaca.

The Cathedral of Cuernavaca.

The beach of Acapulco.

Stopover in Guadalajara on their way home.

Home again in the San Jose Bus Station.

National Merit

Jack Cousineau became a National Merit Scholarship finalist, competing for one of the Merit Scholarships or a scholarship given groups who use the test as a basis for selection. Jack took the qualifying test last year, as did thousands of students all over the United States. His scores on the test plus a questionaire qualified him as a finalist. Receiving letters of commendation were:

Stephen James

Nancy Merrifield

Randy Scott

Sharon Smolin

Michael Swindell

"Free Enterprise—The Cornerstone of Our Republic" was the title of the speech delivered by sophomore Jay Pimentel in the Lions' Club Speech Contest. Due to Jay's outstanding presentation, he was chosen to represent Washington in a run-off contest held later in the year.

Sophomore Mike Brozevich represented Washington High School in the area finals of the Native Sons of the Golden West Speech Contest at the Hayward Community Center. He delivered his speech on Alcatraz and became eligible for prizes which included valuable U.S. Savings Bonds.

AWARDS

This year the yell leaders, song girls, majorettes, and flag girls of Washington went all out to achieve honor and distinction for their school. At various clinics across the state, such as Squaw Valley Yell-leading and Song Girl Camp and the Onsteads' Majorette Camp, our rally members soon proved themselves the cream-of-the-crop by walking off with top awards. It is with great pride that we, the Washingtonian staff, humbly acknowledge the outstanding achievements of these talented and deserving girls.

Girls' State

This past summer Debbie represented the FUSD at Girls' State, an eight day conference held at the University of California, Davis campus. The youthful summit meeting included discussions, exchange of ideas, and an inspiring interpretation of patriotism by Mr. Quaker.

D.A.R.

Added to Debbie's list of awards and achievements is the DAR award. The Daughters of the American Revolution asked the senior girls to nominate who they felt was the most outstanding senior girl, based on scholastic ability and fine character.

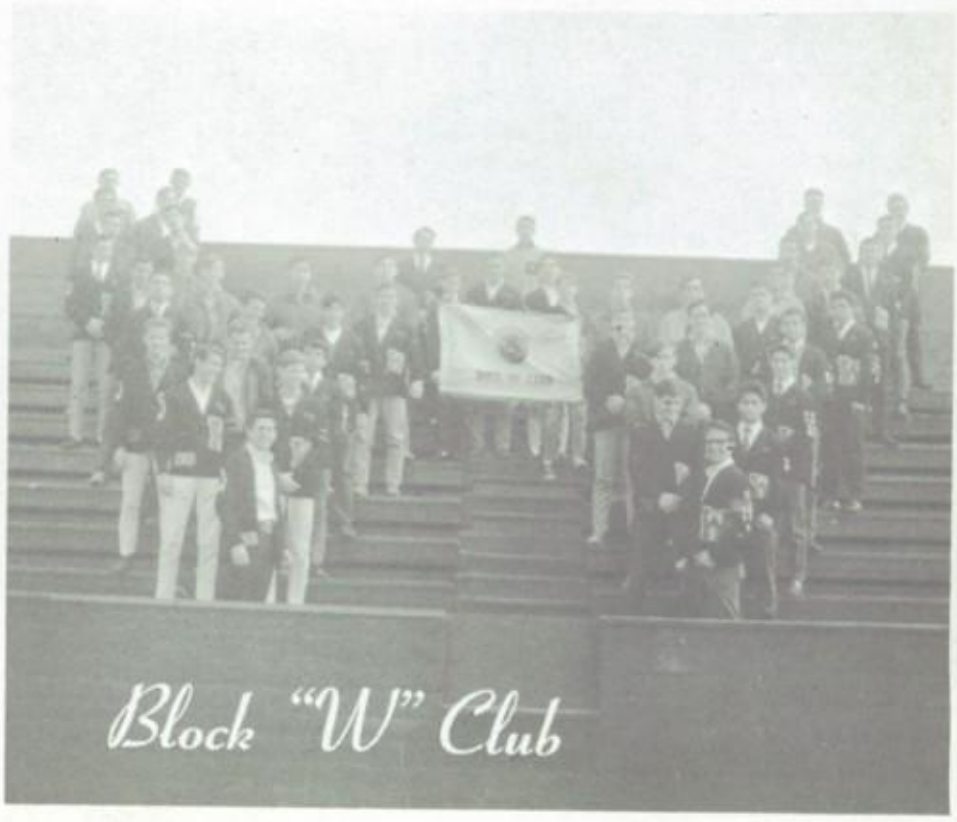
Recognition of Athletic Success

Supervised by Coach Norm Stelle, membership in the Boys' W Club is the highlight of the male athletes' career. Eligibility consists of lettering in a Puppy or Varsity sport. Under the leadership this year of Jeff Lusareta, money-making projects, such as selling programs and food at athletic events, were highly successful.



Gymnastics

Recognizing the need for a gymnastics organization, Mr. Nelson Lodge, a proven tumbler in his own right, and Coach Springer have set the foundation for the future gymnastics team at Washington.

Aquatic Officials

This year the dedicated girls who assist Coach Eustis as timers and judges for the swimming team organized themselves into the Aquatics Officials Club. Through invaluable service, these girls soon earned the appreciation of the swimming team.

Aquacade

Hard practice in synchronized skills made the watershow the tremendous success it was this year. Presented by the GAA on May 24 and 25, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Ahrendt, the theme of this 3rd annual aquacade was "Show Biz." Featuring such numbers as "Hello Dolly" and "Do-Re-Me," the show concluded with "There's No Business Like Show Business."

Field and Stream

Tackling the ever-impossible challenge that Mother Lode has to offer, the newly organized Field and Stream Club organized this year under the capable leadership of Coach Scholl and Coach Springer.

Doug Chamberlain, Sentinel; Robert Banzet, Reporter; Steve MacGregor, Vice-President; J. Harmsworth, President; Ed Sojourner, Secretary; Ken Duarte, Treasurer.

Future Farmers of America

operate the farm under the guidance of Mr. Gordon Spurling (above). FFA members develop projects ranging from vegetable and grain crops to beef and dairy cattle, sheep and swine. They also participate in contests related to FFA work and agriculture.

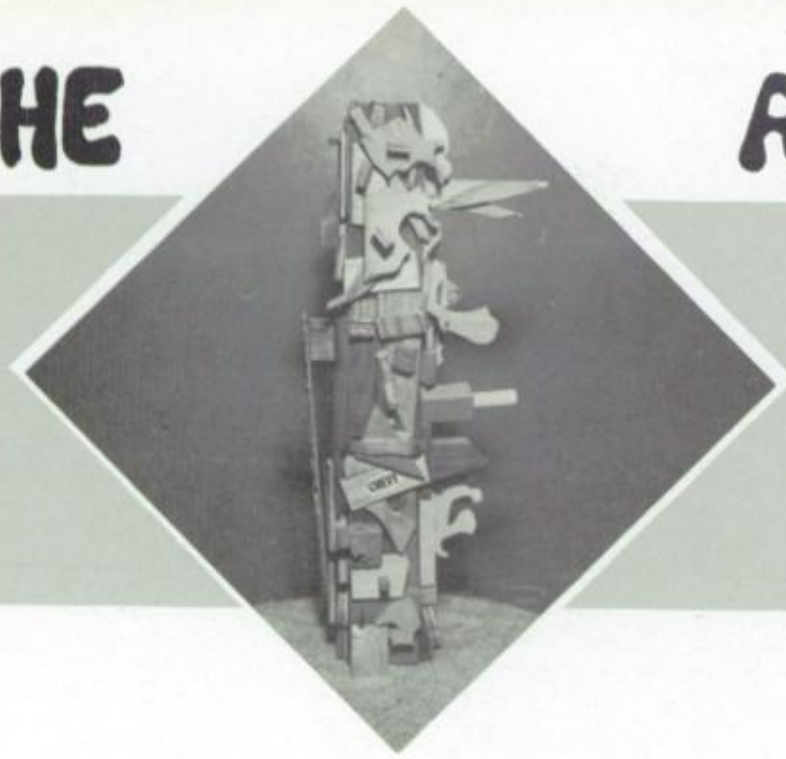
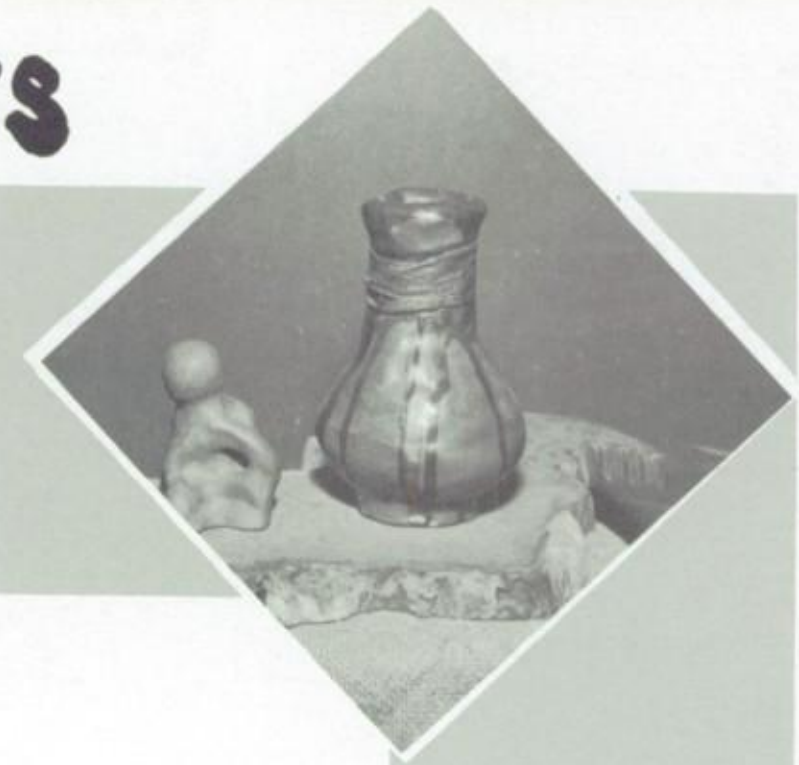
Finale

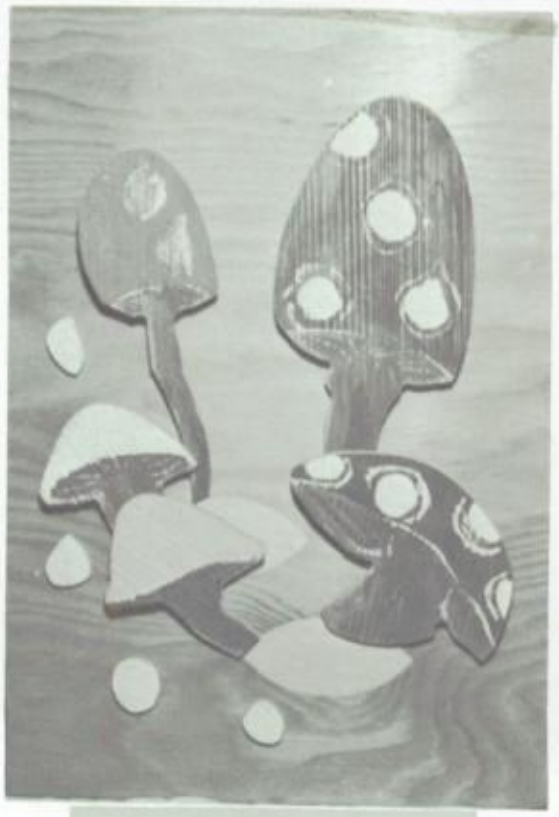
FESTIVAL OF

The Festival of Arts, held quarterly at Washington High School, provides an opportunity for students of music and drama to perform in front of an audience as soloists or in small groups. It also gives art students a chance to display their works.

THE ARTS







"You've gotta play it the Company Way."

"The kid could really put me through hell."

How to Succeed in Business

"A secretary's not a toy."

"A secretary's not to be used for play therapy."

"A success? Me?"

"You don't find the name Lionel on her caboose!"

without Really Trying

"You didn't need to work all night."

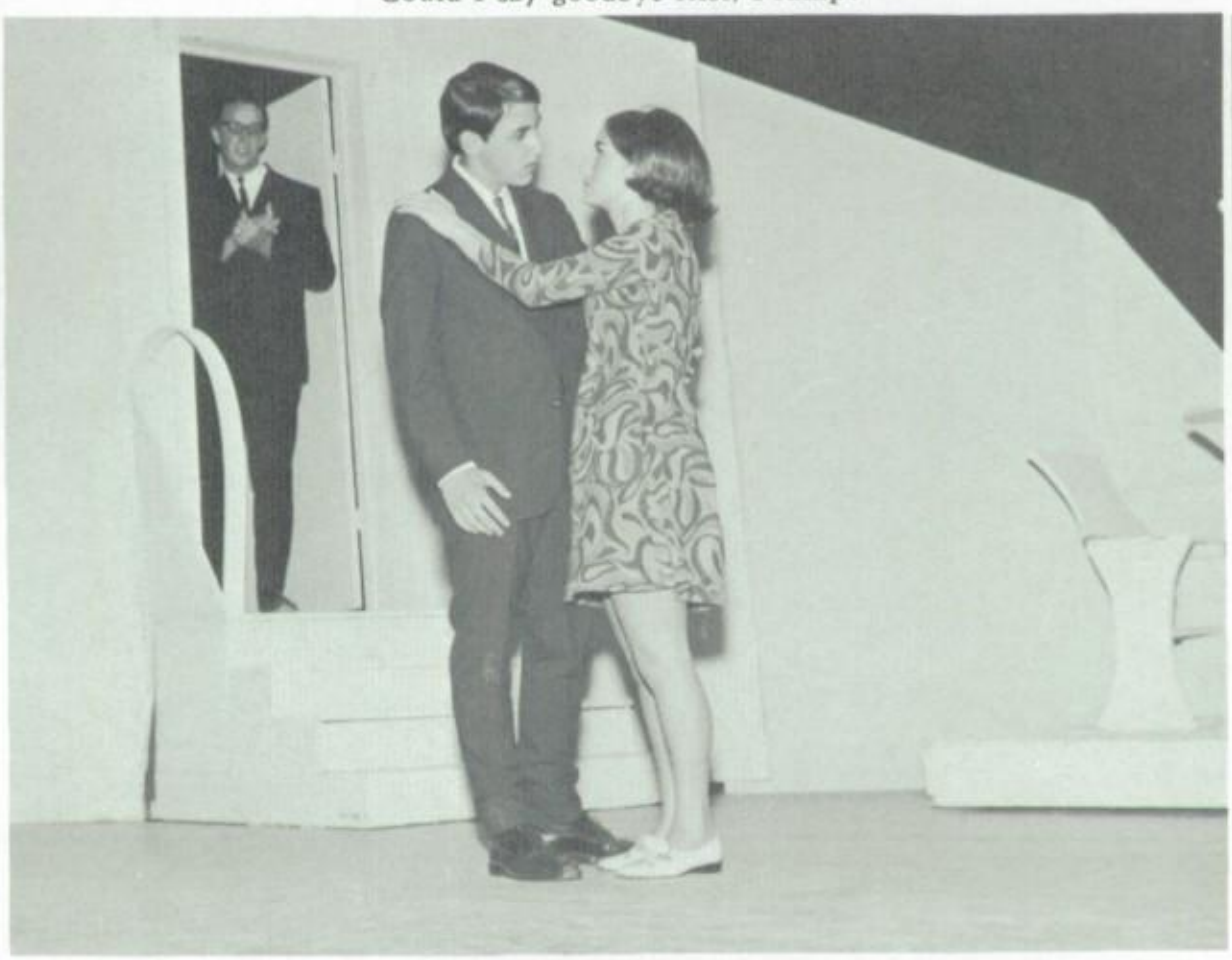
"The name's Finch. F-I-N-C-H!"

"Could I say goodbye first, Frump?"



"Really Miss Krumholtz, here on Madison Ave.!"

"If I can't take my coffee break, something inside me dies."

Many new faces were seen on the stage of this highly colorful Madison Avenue fable of a young man's rise from window washer to President of the Board of the World Wide Wicket Company.

They said it couldn't be done! The Husky Varsity Football Team finished the first undefeated season in the history of the Mission Valley Athletic League. Standings alone don't tell the story of a great football team.

This year's team, had trying moments, but fought back and won. Teamwork played a great role in the winning of close games.

The most exciting game was with Logan where the Huskies came from behind in the last 45 seconds to win the game. Certainly the most crucial game was with Mission when we broke the tie for first place in the M.V.A.L. standings.

Within every page and every picture of this yearbook there's a story that can be told.
Innumerable stories which tell of personal and kaleidoscopic memories for all of us who participated in its creation. But most of all they tell the story of special people—wonderful people who deserve much recognition, which they seldom receive.

WASHINGTON HIGH unending friendships hustling to classes
sixth period birthdays excruciating pyramid unfortunate accident excitement of homecoming spirit week cancellation couldn't cancel spirit

generation gap
Rita, yearbook photographer forever taking pictures taking much time and extra effort enthusiasm pep finally lunch garbage dilemma smiles of victory legs, legs and more legs

the glow of happy youth meditation on front steps the A is for Aaron
The students at Washington are young and full of life—learning, knowing, experiencing all the excitement that belongs to these few years. The high years pass quickly.
